

3.3 Linkage of data to quality improvement

Procedures for the use of data, statistics, records and outcomes of reviews relating to research degree programmes are supported by management and established as essential to effective governance and good decision-making, risk assessment and continuous quality improvement.